

V1

Loose lips
they can't say this No, they don't know your walkin
through the fire

Battle Scars
Need tenderness
Even though you're preaching to the choir

PRECHORUS

Lose yourself ,
along the way,
Life is but a dream
Find yourself,
there's no one else
who will row your boat so Gently down the stream

CHORUS

Make a wish,
say a prayer,
throw your hands up in the air
What a glorious feeling

Catch a dream
Catch a drift
Catch yourself on fire
Now the paint has started
peeling

Cast a spell
Cast a web
Cast away your doubts Until you're dancing on the ceiling

Catch the wind
Catch a wave
Catch a falling star
You are
An extraordinary being

V2

True grit
Can handle shit
And you've had more than your fair share of it
Hands on hips
And no regrets
You hold onto A truth that you can never forget

PRECHORUS

(you) Find yourself,
Somewhere along the way,
Cuz Life ain't but a dream
(you) Lose yourself,
but there's no one else,
whose gonna row your boat so Merrily on down the stream

CHORUS

Make a wish,
say a prayer,
throw your hands up in the air

Catch a dream
Catch a drift
And see the paint is all but
peeling

Cast a spell
Cast a web
Now your dancing on the ceiling

Catch the wind
Catch a wave
Catch a falling star
You are
You are
An extraordinary being
